

Hearing Documents

Chairman Issa's Hearing Preview Statement

Thursday's hearing of the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform, entitled "Regulatory

Congress has a responsibility to make policy with our eyes and ears open. We must know about the rea

At Thursday's hearing, we will listen to representatives of the small business community, vital trade asso

I welcome the President's openness in this regard, and the Oversight Committee will seek to partner with

Hearing Video

Full Committee Hearing Video Part 1

Full Committee Hearing Video Part 2

Witnesses

Panel I

Jay Timmons

CEO

National Association of Manufacturers

Harry Alford

CEO

Black Chamber of Commerce

Tom Nassif

President and CEO

Western Growers Association

Michael J. Fredrich

President

MCM Composites, LLC

Jack Buschur

President

Buschur Electric

Panel II

James Gattuso

Senior Research Fellow in Regulatory Policy

The Heritage Foundation

Karen Kerrigan

President

Small Business and Entrepreneurship Council

Sidney Shapiro

Center for Progressive Reform

Jerry Ellig

Senior Research Fellow

Mercatus Center at George Mason University

Other Documents

In his State of the Union Address, President Obama highlighted the importance of making America a better

CLICK HERE for submissions Chairman Issa has received

CLICK HERE for 2-9-11 update

"The President has recognized the value in examining the regulatory barriers impeding private sector job

Beginning with the end of last year, Chairman Issa sent a letter to more than 100 associations, private industry groups, and labor unions asking them to provide input. Click here for a list of the associations, private industry groups, and labor unions that have responded to the letter to provide input.

Report: Assessing Regulatory Impediments to Job Creation